What's Inside ?

Camp Updates

Inside this issue you will find updates on donations of new kitchen equipment. You will also find a recap of our sold out Bear Lake Crafting Weekend, where the camp was filled with laughter, creativity, and holiday spirit.

LBLC Spotlights

Each month we pause to shine a light on the people who help shape the spirit of Bear Lake Camp. This month we are honoring Board Member Jim Leach Jr for the steady leadership and genuine care he brings to our mission. We are also recognizing Food Service Director Chrissy Andre for the work she does every day to support our staff, our campers, and the many groups who walk through our doors.

Campfire Chats

This month's Campfire Chats brings two stories that reflect the spirit of Bear Lake Camp. We are celebrating Camp Champion Denise Freshney for her many years of support, and we are also welcoming our long standing retreat group Justice for Lily. Both bring warmth, dedication, and community to this place.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR NOTE TRACI TRIBLEY

December has always felt like a pause. The year slows just enough for the world to feel different. The lights come out, the scent of winter settles in, and the lake sits still under the cold sky. Camp feels quieter this time of year, and that quiet has a way of bringing a different kind of appreciation. Most people picture Bear Lake Camp in the summer. They see campers laughing at the waterfront, singing on the hill, or climbing the tower. What many never witness are the months before and after. The planning. The repairs. The retreat groups who come through. The meals that still have to be prepared. The long days that happen even when the cabins look empty from the outside. There is a team behind all of that. A team that rarely asks for recognition. A team that shows up in the early mornings when the kitchen lights turn on. A team that stays after a group leaves to wash, reset, and prepare for the next arrival. Their work is not always neat or easy. It often goes unnoticed. Yet it is the reason this camp feels the way it does. They carry responsibility that stretches far beyond what is written in a job description. They give energy on the days that feel heavy. They handle the unexpected without hesitation. They hold the heart of this place quietly and consistently. That is not something you can teach. That comes from believing in something deeper. When I look around during this season I do not only see decorations and holiday colors. I see the effort it takes to make this place welcoming in every season. I see the commitment that does not change when the temperature drops or when there are no campers running around. I see pride in the work and care in the details that others may never notice. This holiday season, I want to acknowledge that truth. The spirit of Bear Lake Camp does not appear by accident. It exists because people give their time, their patience, and their heart to something bigger than themselves. Thank you for that. Thank you for showing up. Thank you for loving this place in a way that can be felt. May this month bring some rest, a little warmth, and a reminder of the meaning behind the work we do.

CAMP UPDATES: WHAT'S NEW AT BEAR LAKE CAMP

Stay up to date with everything happening at Lions Bear Lake Camp in Camp Updates! From exciting developments and upcoming events to the latest news from around the camp, this section will keep you informed on all the ways we're growing and evolving to serve our campers and community.

New Kitchen Equipment

Recently, Lions Bear Lake Camp received an incredible amount of support in the form of donated kitchen equipment, and it took real planning, coordination, and effort to make it happen. Thanks to the hard work and determination of Dusty Rounds and Jay Caldwell, we now have thirty-eight brand new sheet pans, two speed racks, a donated reach-in cooler that will give us much-needed additional cold storage during the busiest months, and 20 cafeteria/banquet tables that will replace the ones we've stretched as far as possible over the years. None of this arrived by accident. It took time, lifting, organizing, moving, and making things happen when it would have been easier to look the other way and keep going with what we already had. Dusty and Jay stepped in because they care deeply about this camp, the mission, and the kids and families who depend on everything we do. These donations are more than equipment. They mean fewer workflow hurdles in the kitchen, better spaces for meals, safer accommodations, and more room to grow as our programs continue expanding. They make everyday tasks easier for the staff and create a better experience for every person who walks through our doors. To Dusty and Jay... thank you. Your work will touch every meal served, every gathering around a table, and every moment shared in the dining hall. This camp continues forward because of people who show up, care deeply, and quietly make things better.

Bear Lake Crafting Weekend

Every year, while deer season opens across Michigan, something very different takes place here at camp. Our Annual Bear Lake Camp Crafting Weekend has become one of the most anticipated events of the year, and it sells out every time. The weekend brings together crafters from the many groups who hold retreats with us throughout the year, along with new faces who heard about the event and decided to join in. By the time everyone settles in and sets up their projects, the room is already buzzing with creativity. This weekend has a way of bringing people together. It gives everyone the chance to learn something new, to share ideas, and to pick up skills that someone at the next table has spent years perfecting. Friendships tend to form quickly during these few days. It might start with a simple question about a pattern or a tool, and before long there is a small circle gathered around a project, offering encouragement and swapping stories. The holiday season also begins here during this weekend. The camp Christmas tree goes up and the crafters help us fill it with new handmade ornaments. Each one carries a piece of the person who created it, and by the end of the weekend the tree becomes a collection of memories from everyone who spent time here. It is a weekend built around creativity, laughter, and the comfort of being surrounded by people who love to make things. Year after year it reminds us that camp is more than a place. It is a community that grows a little stronger each time we gather.

LBLC SPOTLIGHTS: CELEBRATING OUR CAMP COMMUNITY

In LBLC Spotlights, we shine a light on the dedicated individuals and partnerships that help make Lions Bear Lake Camp extraordinary. Each month, we'll highlight a staff member and board of directors member. These are the people and collaborations that drive our mission forward, ensuring that every camper experiences the magic of Bear Lake Camp.

Jim Leach Jr.

Board Member

Some people become part of the foundation of a place without ever trying to. For more than forty years, Jim Leach Jr. has been one of those people at Bear Lake. He first stepped into the kitchen at thirteen, learning what it meant to work hard and care about something larger than himself. Those early summers shaped him, and he carried that sense of purpose into every role that followed. He eventually became Camp Director, a position he held for seven years, guiding the camp with a steady hand and a quiet understanding of what this place means to the children it serves. When his time as Director came to an end, his commitment did not fade. He joined the Board of Directors in 2000 and continues to offer insight shaped by decades of lived experience. That same heart shows in his work at Leader Dogs for the Blind, where he oversees, trains, and recruits hundreds of volunteers, building a community of support for those who need it most. Life at home is filled with the same devotion. Jim has been married to his wife, Kim, for twenty eight years. Many know her from her own years of service to camp, and together they raised two children who grew up hearing the stories that shaped them both. Their two career changed Leader Dogs bring even more warmth to their home. When Jim has time for himself, he is often golfing or camping with his family, enjoying the simple moments that remind him of what really matters. Bear Lake is better because of Jim. His history, his heart, and his quiet strength continue to lift this place in ways that cannot be measured.

Chrissy Andre

Food Service Director

Bear Lake depends on people who keep camp running with steady work that often happens out of view. Our Food Service Director, Chrissy Andre, is one of those individuals. She first helped in the kitchen during a weekend in 2021. By the next summer she had joined the staff year round and her role has continued to expand with the needs of our programs. This year the kitchen prepared more than twenty five thousand five hundred meals for more than three thousand five hundred visitors. Organizing that amount of activity requires structure, planning, and support for a team that works long days through summer youth sessions, rentals, and leadership programs. The dining hall remains a welcoming place for campers because of the consistency built into that work. During the offseason, Chrissy oversees meals for quilting retreats, crafting weekends, and school groups. These events bring a different rhythm, and the goal is always the same. Create a space where guests feel comfortable and cared for. Chrissy also assists with several communication and outreach efforts. She prepares the monthly newsletter, helps maintain social media and website information, and coordinates the Annual Ice Plunge, which continues to grow as a key fundraiser for camp. Her work touches many areas and supports the mission in ways that help each season run smoothly. We appreciate the dedication she brings to every part of her role.

CAMPFIRE CHATS: STORIES THAT WARM THE HEART

Welcome to Campfire Chats, where we share the inspiring stories and unforgettable memories from our past campers and groups. Each month, we'll also spotlight our Camp Champion, someone who embodies the spirit of Lions Bear Lake Camp. These are the moments and people that make our camp so special—stories that continue to spark joy long after the campfire's last ember.

Denise Freshney Camp Champion

When you spend time at camp you start to notice the people who help keep this place moving in their own quiet ways. Denise Freshney is one of those people. She has been arranging quilting retreats for the Anchor Bay Quilting Guild and the Happy Quilters for many years, and she brings a steady sense of care to everything she does. Denise also helps with our camp sponsored Crafting Weekends. She makes sure the details fall into place so that crafters can simply enjoy their time together. When we look at the full year, her retreats fill our camp for thirty one days. That is thirty one days of sewing machines humming, good conversations, shared meals, and a feeling of comfort that settles in as soon as everyone arrives. What makes Denise stand out even more is the way she gives back while she is here. She is always helping with fundraising through fifty fifty drawings and raffles, and she encourages others to support the camp right alongside her. Her enthusiasm reminds people that their time here does more than offer a getaway. It helps make camp possible for the kids and families who count on this place. We are grateful for everything she brings. Denise's support, her consistency, and her belief in our mission have made a real difference. Camp feels a little fuller and a little brighter every time she is here.

Justice For Lily- Rental Group

We started coming to Bear Lake Camp in 2013 for our Craft Weekends. Prior to that, my family attended the Heartland Grief Camps from 2011. We loved everything about this place — the staff, the food, the accommodations, and the all-around atmosphere.

We took a couple of years' break and then came back to an even better experience! Jesse, Chrissy, and Traci are such wonderful people who will do anything to make sure your stay is everything you hoped it would be — all the way down to setting up the fireplace with the flue open (inside joke!).

We cannot say enough good things about Bear Lake Camp and the amazing staff they have now. We highly recommend Bear Lake Camp for any of your events!

Warmly,
Lynette Furneaux
Justice for Lily

CAMPFIRE CRUMBS

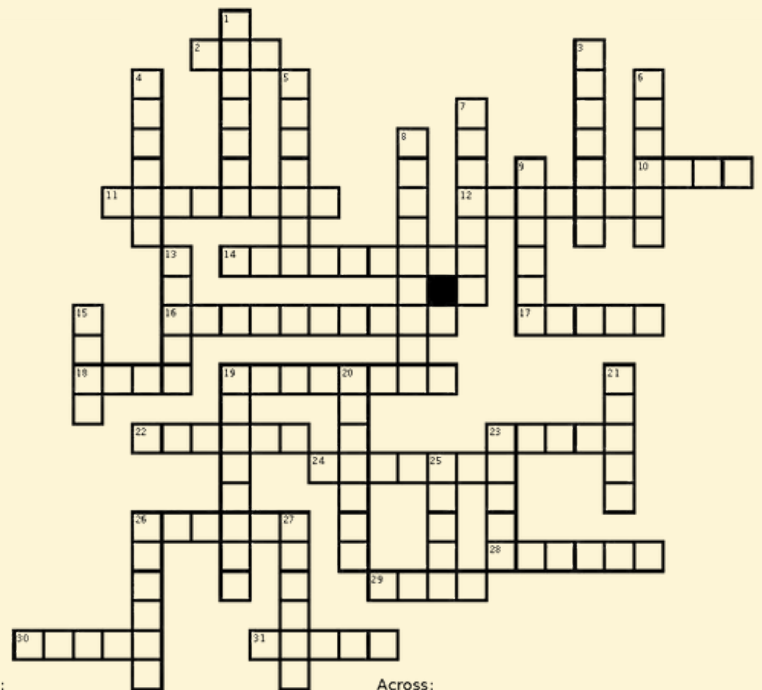

Welcome to our little corner of fun! Each month we'll share something lighthearted from around camp — from quirky facts to favorite recipes and surprises along the way. You never know what you might find here, but it's always sure to bring a smile.
